

NOVEMBER NEWSLETTER

Greetings To Kentucky Rails To Trails Members,

Our numbers are small now, but progress is being made on numerous fronts and we are looking forward to growing in membership, participation, and effectiveness. Here are some of the upcoming events, meetings and issues coming at us for the near future.

- Next meeting of the Kentucky Rails To Trails Council will be held on November 21 at 5 p.m. in the 5th floor conference room, L.F. U.C. Government Center, 200 E. Main St.. Parking is available at the annex garage.
- Two members of our local council will be attending the National Rails To Trails Conference in Clearwater, Florida on November 15-18. They will be reporting at the November 21 meeting what took place at the conference.
- The trail ride on the Youghiogheny River trail has been postponed to the spring.
- We are still trying to get members to pay the $10.00 annual fee.....Please! Thanks to those of you have already done so as this is helping to offset the organizational and mailing costs.
- We will be setting a date for a meeting with those interested in working on the Ashland to Lexington trail to be held in Morehead for Spring 1996.
- A meeting was held Wednesday Nov. 1 to discuss strategies for a Rails To Trails workshop tentatively scheduled for April 20 (Sat.) at Georgetown College. More information will follow at a future date.

All correspondence and dues should be sent to : Kentucky Rails To Trails Council
